

Mozambique - Island Paradise...

The vibrant mix of African, Portuguese and Arab cultures gives the country a fascinating ambience of the tropic and the meridian. Mozambique is a refreshing experience, with a simple way of life, glorious sunshine, tropical resorts and the tempting waters of the ocean never far away. Imagine yourself at the end of another idyllic day - lying in Mozambique on a deserted beach under a palm tree, watching the moonrise over a warm Indian ocean..... This is what traveling in the tropical paradise of Mozambique is all about.

The Coastal Areas of Mozambique

Free from over-development and now safe to visit, Mozambique's vast unexplored coastline makes it a paradise for sun and sea lovers. The coral reefs are some of the richest in the world and home to a kaleidoscope of tropical fish, while game fish abound in the deeper waters. This abundant marine life and excellent visibility make it a mecca for scuba divers, snorkelers and anglers from around the world.

Description on Hotels:

Vilanculos Beach Lodge

Vilanculos Beach Lodge offers scenic surroundings, vibrant nature and exquisite cuisine that Mozambique has to offer. The lodge is constructed from natural indigenous elements of thatch and local hardwood sambiri poles which have been combined in perfect harmony with plaster walls and wood frame doors and windows. The result is the relaxed yet stylish finish. The property extends right on to the beach and the lodge buildings are set back about 100m up the ridge, overlooking the sea.

The Luxury Chalets are positioned on the 100m drop to the beach; each patio faces the ocean and offers exceptional views of the sunrise over the ocean. Construction of the chalets is of indigenous hardwood sambiri pole and thatch; plaster walls with wooden frame windows and doors; and combinations of highly polished hardwood and concrete floors. Frameless glass shower doors and interesting vanity features incorporating traditional beer barrel bases with impressive hardwood counter tops have been included in the design of the interior. Large glass doors and windows allow an abundance of natural light to enter the rooms and offer fantastic views of the ocean from each chalet. A well-placed desk and counter top serves a practical purpose while adding a local element of high gloss wood and traditional beer barrel to the room. All units are fitted with separate air conditioning, mosquito nets, hairdryers, shaver plug points, electronic safes, fridges and coffee and tea stations.

The Presidential Suite, built on stilts, offers superb views of the ocean and islands in the distance. It has two en-suite rooms a comfortable open plan lounge and bar as well as a spacious covered patio. Floors in the Presidential Suite are concrete with interesting tile inlays. Construction of the unit comprises plaster walls, high volume thatched roof with wood framed doors and large folding louver doors off the lounge. The air-conditioned rooms are large and comfortably appointed with mosquito nets, desk, arm chairs, luggage racks, hairdryers and electronic safes. The en-suite bathrooms, boast open shower, double vanity, toilet and a bidet. The lounge has large folding doors which, when open, offer unobstructed views of the ocean. The bar counter provides a comfortable place to relax in private with friends and family.

The Main Building houses the lounge, reception, main bar, restaurant and kitchen. This thatched structure invites you to unwind in the comfort of its open spaces and passages which lead into the garden, allowing for a refreshing escape and uninterrupted views of the sea. The large comfortable couches in the lounge provide the perfect place to relax indoors and the main bar is equally well-positioned overlooking the lush gardens, palm trees and pool in the distance.

The spacious restaurant offers the choice of dining in doors, or out on the patio under well-designed, attractive shade sails. For true outdoor dining, the option of dining under the palm trees or next to the pool is available. An impressive
